

Municipality Alleyn and Cawood

Declaration – Use of the language of your choice

This statement emphasizes the importance for members of the Municipal council and other participants in the meeting to express themselves freely in the official language of their choice and we have the resources on site to provide translation if necessary.